

Southern Okanagan Community Inclusion Society
6311 Main St. Oliver BC V0H 1T0 (tel) 250-498-0309

Job description

Southern Okanagan Community Inclusion Society (SOCIS) is a non-profit organization with operations in Oliver and Osoyoos, BC. We provide services to neuro-diverse individuals to enhance their quality of life and meet their health needs. We do this through our various programs including:

- 24/7 Group Homes
- Job development program
- Day programs
- Home share
- Others

Why work for SOCIS?

At SOCIS, we are an organization for the people. We aim to provide the best quality of life for the clients we serve and we can do this by having a great team. Our staff are our most important assets. We support them by offering various training opportunities, accommodating schedules, and providing opportunities to work with their skill sets.

About the position:

Being a casual, you will orientate in all of our programs. This will allow you to see all of the various aspects of our operations. Once you are done orientating, as a casual, you can pick and choose from the available shifts offered and create your own work schedule. This position is great for people looking for flexibility in their lives. There is no minimum requirement for the number of shifts you must pick up. That being said, we are currently hiring 2 to 3 people for our casual board and there are many shifts to pick up if you so choose.

You will be good fit for our organization if you are:

- Empathetic
- Flexible
- Like to help others succeed
- Hard-working
- A creative problem solver

Duties:

- Administering medication
- Following various individual health care plans
- Aiding persons served in reaching personal goals
- Driving persons served
- Documentation of day-to-day operations
- Other care related activities
